6. Cynllunio- Planning

Planning Plasccwmfelyn Care Home has the full support of the community council and Ceredigion council. The decision to decline was that the original architecture plans by Morgan & Flynn Architectural Services were not in line with CADW. The architecture had then been given notice to resubmit with guidance, and did not amend the plans or submit within the period given by the planning department. They will now need to restart the process, but the plans need to be kept in line with CADW due to their listed building status, as they were originally told.
